
Employer Contribution/Remittance Processing System

The Employer Contribution/Remittance Processing System quickly and accurately manages the collection of contributions from Employers. The system automatically calculates payments due, as well as discrepancies and delinquencies, before distributing contributions to the appropriate funds. The built-in flexibility of the ISSI Contribution Processing System meets a broad range of customer requirements. Whether your contributions are based on dollars per hour, a percentage of wages, a flat rate per day/week/month, credit/no credit, a combination of formulas, or something truly unique to your Fund Office, the ISSI system can meet your needs.

Some features and functions of the Employer Contribution/Remittance Processing System Include:

- Online Electronic Contributions Processing with ISSi-Remit
